

SENIOR PROJECT MANAGER – INFRASTRUCTURE DESIGN

TYPICAL PROFILE

Essential

- Graduate MEng 2.1 or similar
- Minimum of 10 years experience in highway/drainage design and/or flood risk.
- Experience in horizontal and vertical alignments.
- Experience in DMRB and County standards.
- Capable of managing own workload with minimum supervision.
- Competent in use of PDS/Autocad/MicroDrainage.
- Team player.
- Positive attitude.
- Good communication skills (both written and verbal).
- Site experience.
- Client facing experience.
- Preparation of fee budgets.

Preferred

- Experience in drainage design.
- Working knowledge of Sewers for Adoption.
- Preparation of contract documents/bills of quantities.
- Chartered Engineer or working towards it.
- Capable of supervising subordinates.

PFA Package

- Salary £35k-£40k subject to experience and qualifications.
- Car allowance.
- Performance Bonus (Company and Individual).
- Pension 5% of gross salary.
- 25 days annual leave.
- 37½ hour week.
- 3 choices of working hours/day.
- Health Care for employee.
- Free parking.
- Excellent office environment.
- Training.
- 6 month probation period.